Where in the world can you journey by light plane and helicopter to a secluded place that blends cuisine, rock art and unbelievable fishing? Kimberley Coastal Camp is such a rare experience and for those who make the journey the impact is always deeply profound. This is spiritual ground.

Guests stay in rustic gazebos with fine linens and water views. The mix of Bella's superb but unfussy cuisine, warm characters like bushy Rocky Terry and an itinerary of daily activities completely tailored to the whim and interests of each guest makes this more like staying in style with an outback family.

The rate is fully inclusive of adventures and food. Guests can choose to fish or set out to discover the breathtaking and mysterious Gwion Gwion Aboriginal rock art that few humans have ever seen or simply relax in the open-air lounge. Wake with the sunrise, graze on a leisurely breakfast and plan a day of adventure replete with great food, fun and the rhythm of nature. This is a truly wondrous place you will never forget.

Location: 1½ hour light plane and helicopter flight from Kununurra, Broome or Darwin. Map 14. RA 89 B10.

Facilities: Luxury camp: six guest gazebos, each with king bed/twin singles, fly-screen walls, ceiling fan, sea views. Outdoor bathrooms (private showers and toilets). Open-air lodge with lounge/dining. Pool. Guided fishing, walking, wildlife and rock art tours. Fully catered.
